

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen the Indiana telephone Privacy law protections. The fact that the telemarketers are not calling at all hours and and for products and information that I have absolutly no use or need for is a blessing. PLEASE... the Indiana Law has been very effective - don't screw it up!!!